Presidential Debate Question on Energy Policy Answered by Rowdy House

STATELINE, Nev., Oct. 22, 2012 /PRNewswire/ – Every American's interest peaked during the second presidential between on record three times deliver when on record three times deliver prices. "Your energy secretary, Sevent Chu, has now been on record three times deliver by the policy of the opady and operational to layour gas prices. Do you agree with Secretary or the policy of the opady and operational to layour gas prices. Do you agree with Secretary or the policy of the opady and the policy of the opad point in the opad

The aptly timed song "Energy Policy" answers the town hall debate question. It highlights the fact that current policy does not prioritize energy affectionably and as a result, bedgy's flexible properties of the properties of th

America's energy policy has been "practicality challenged" by China's pursuit of oil which is undercutling U.S. security interests and economic future on multiple fronts. China needs a lot of energy because. Americans by so many products from them. That's also why China is the largest foreign holder of U.S debt. its oil consumption grows seven times faster than the U.S., and its growth projections are off the charts.

Sustaining an extremely high level of economic growth may be necessary to contain civil unrest in China, even though they continue to suppress disserting opinions and human rights while high gasoline prices have Americans frantishing from cars to bicycles, the Chinese are transitioning from bicycles to cars. In a few decades, China will have more cars on its roads than there are cars on the plantet dozs. Therefore, they wint more oil.

While Americans are questioning US Energy Policy in the 2012 Presidential Election Debates and asking if their government is doing anything to help lower gas prices. China has been working diligently to secure its energy future. They have been aggresses he the South China Sea withor is rich in oil and gas, but their ownership is disputed. In addition, China has also been assertive in securing reserves around the world.

China has been securing oil reserves in the American market proximity, which will force the U.S. to seek more oil from the Middle East. China's arms sales to the region and its support of state sporces of terrorism are highly routions. With related slatent ideologic palaring a East, the price of oil will be going up, and the 2012 Presidential Election Debates will be healing up.

Will the Energy Policy question be answered in the context of the broader Presidential Foreign Policy Debate? Adding an extra dimension on the Saturday before the final debate on foreign policy, the Oberna administration commanded a US carrier group on a mission to crusise though the disputed South Christa Sax. Enerisons may fairly with the final Florid debate between Barack Oberna and Mill Romney including hot topics like Iran, Syria and the Lubra scandal, there may not be enough their to a lancer the Energy Policy question. But the question on everyones mand each time they fill up their tank is, "Will be able to afford it next fund?"

Rowdy House released the rock single "Don't Let a Liar Lead You" and the YouTube video just before the new song Energy Policy and the presidential
